111 S. Jefferson, Moscow

Costs: $26 for members, $29 for guests

When most people think of wine and Thai food it's at different times. Now the Palouse Chapter of the Enological Society has a chance to pair your favorite beverage with one of the world's most interesting foods. We will be having two delicious appetizers fish cakes and chicken satay with peanut sauce & cucumber relish. Next we will have Spicy Chicken, Coconut and Galangal Soup and a beef salad with chili and onion. Then we will have four fabulous entrees and finish with Lime/Ginger Ice Cream. All the food will be served family style keeping with Thai tradition. We will sample five different wines during the event. Monmousseau Brut Etoile, Laxas Albarino 2001, Monmousseau Vouvray 2001, Shenendoah Vinyards Barbera 1997 and Mcguigan Shiraz 2000. Sign up early for this event as we expect a packed house as usual.. The deadline for the dinner is Oct 12.
