When: 7:00pm, Friday, November 14, 2008

Please join us November 14th for a delicious sampling of Cline Wines. Michael Ginder Cline's Northwest Sales Manager will lead the tasting.

Fred Cline's maternal grandfather, Valeriano Jacuzzi of pump and spa fame, called a vineyard in Oakley, Contra Costa County home. On summer visits to his grandparents, Fred learned both the love of agricultural life and the mysteries of vinifying grapes into wine. These lessons led Fred to obtain a degree in Agriculture Management from U.C. Davis. In 1982, with an inheritance from his grandfather, Fred founded Cline Cellars near Oakley, California. Here, he preserved and restored many ancient vine sites to their rightful reign as premier California wine lands.

In 1991, Fred and his wife Nancy relocated the winery from Oakley to the Carneros region of Sonoma County on a historic 350-acre estate with new vineyards and facilities. While much of the cool Carneros region is planted to Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Merlot, Fred pioneered the planting of Rhône varietals including Syrah, Viognier, Marsanne and Roussanne. Since 2002 Charles (Charlie) Tsegeletos has been the winemaker.

We will be sampling the following wines:

Oakley 5 Reds 2006

Cline Viognier 2007

Cline Syrah Sonoma 2006

Cline Zinfandel 2006

Cline Syrah Sonoma Cool Climate 2006
