Our September tasting features a variety wines and food from Spain. We will open the event with a pour of Mestres 2004 Clos Nostre Senyor Gran Reserva Brut Nature Cava. The first flight, all white, will consist of the 2016 Vina De Martin Os Padas Ribeiro, 2017 Ameztoi Txakolina, 2017 Pazo Senorans Albarino, and NV La Guita Manzanilla. These will be paired with fire roasted stuffed squid and a fresh tomato-based salad.

The second flight is 4 vintages of Artadi Vinas De Gain Tempranillo 2004, 2006, 2011, and 2015. This flight will be served with Logrono Style wood-fired mushrooms.

The third flight features red wines from other areas of Spain. The first is 2014 El Cadastro, a blend of Tempranillo and Grenache from Castilla Y Leon. The next 2 wines, the Vinyes D'en Gabriel 2015 Finesse and 2015 Secret from Montsant, are going to be a fun experience. They are both 100% Grenache from the same vineyard but grown on completely different soil profiles. Last is the 2015 Descendientes de J. Palacios Villa de Corullon from Bierzo, a red blend with some white wine thrown in the mix. This flight will be paired with a chorizo stuffed pork loin.

We'll end the evening with a flourless chocolate cake accompanied by the Perez Barquero Pedro Ximenez, which has undergone oxidative aging in solar and is bottled at an average age of 25 years. It should be a fun pour to wrap up the event.

The start time is 4pm to ensure adequate daylight and will be held rain or shine. Please dress for the weather, especially if temperatures that day are cool. In the case of rain, we will make appropriate arrangements. This is a one bottle tasting so sign up quickly as attendance is limited to 24. We are excited to kick off our new season of tastings with this event and hope to see you there.
