Contact: Shaun Freuden (shaunf@roadrunner.com)

After being rained out on June 4th we are trying again. We have a few spots left if you are interested.

We are featuring wines from William Fèvre, which is one of the greatest producers of Chablis in the world. This domaine delivers at the highest levels for a fraction of the cost of its competitors. Although made with chardonnay, the wines are very different from those of California; made with less oak than California chardonnays and more use of stainless steel vats. Fèvre's vineyards sit on deep clay-limestone soils. Their wines typically are rich and complex, and have a clean, crisp minerality, often with a hint of citrus, lemon, and/or melon-like flavors. Come taste for yourself!

These wines are difficult to procure and run the price gauntlet from $60 to $140 a bottle. They all earned scores by the reviewers between 90-96 points; really amazing wines. We are fortunate to be pouring the following 12 bottles with food for an awesome low price of $55:

- 2016 & 2017 Les Lys Premier Cru
- 2016 & 2017 Vaillons Premier Cru
- 2016 & 2017 Vaurorent Premier Cru
- 2016 & 2017 Bougros Grand Cru
- 2016 & 2017 Cote Bouguerots Grand Cru
- 2016 & 2017 Valmur Grand Cru

We are pairing the wines with an omelet (mushroom, leek, fresh herbs, manchego & white truffle oil), scallop pizza, and whole roast chicken (which is a classic pairing for Chablis). This will be an outdoor event so please plan accordingly. Parking is available on Janet street. We look forward to seeing you there.
