

The Event:

What: Sauvignon Blanc Around the World

When: Sunday May 19 at 4:00 pm

Where: Unitarian Church, 420 E.2nd St, Moscow

Cost: $12 for members, $14 for guests

Pat Carter will lead us in a tasting of ten sauvignon blancs from around the world. Sauvignon blanc is a reasonably priced wine that is fun to drink alone, with friends, or with food. In addition it is a wine that expresses the terroir in which the grapes are grown, so that sauvignon blancs from different areas may taste very different from one another. We will be tasting wines from Tenuto Villanova (Italy), Casa Lapostolle (Chile), Neil Ellis (South Africa), Carmel (Israel), Giesen (New Zealand), Ch. De Sancerre (France), Ch. Des Proms (France), Ch. Ste. Michelle (Wash), Ferrari-Carano (Calif), Camaraderie (Wash).

For more information, please contact Peter Mika at 882-1862. The Unitarian Church does not sponsor this event. Please send in your check and the registration form below to: