

What: Lesser-Known Italian Varietals
When: Sunday, May 15, 2016 at 3:00 PM
Where: The Mika's back patio, 620 Ridge Road, Moscow, ID
Cost: $25 per person. Please email Tim Steffens (timsteffens@mac.com) that you are coming.

Italy is the source of many of the world's greatest wines and also the country with the most diversity in wine grapes. All of us have had plenty of Sangiovese from Tuscany, Nebbiolo from the Piedmont, and even an occasional Pinot Grigio or Soave. But have you ever tried a Tocai Friulano, a Pecorino Bianco, or a Verdeca? How about a Sagrantino, Aglianico, or Teroldego? Please join us for an afternoon sampling some of these lesser-known varieties, featuring 6 whites and 6 reds. Complementary light fare will accompany each flight.

For more information on the event, please contact Peter Mika, pmika@uidaho.edu
