Barbaresco, made 100% from the Nebbiolo grape, is one of Italy's most distinguished wines. The D.O.C.G. Barbaresco district is located in the wine rich area of the Piedmont in Northwest Italy. The tiny Barbaresco district, separated from the Barolo area by the town of Alba, includes the four villages of Barbaresco, Neive, Treiso and San Rocco and 700 hectares (1700 acres) of Nebbiolo grapes.

Produttori del Barbaresco, a cooperative of 56 growers formed in 1958, controls more than 100 hectares (250 acres) of premium Nebbiolo vineyards. The Produttori is considered one of the greatest producers in a great wine-producing area; in the words of Robert Parker, it... "continues to set some of the highest standards of wine making for any cooperative in the world". In all vintages it produces a Barbaresco normale which blends together grapes from all of the properties, but in great vintages it also produces 9 single vineyard riserva wines.

2008 was one of these great vintages, so riserva wines were produced. In this tasting, in addition to the normale, we will be trying all of these riservas: wines from Asili, Rabajà, Pora, Montestefano, Ovello, Pajé, Montefico, Moccagatta and Rio Sordo. All of these wines received ratings in the 92 to 96-point range from the Wine Advocate. To enhance the tasting, a delectable assortment of Italian food will be served, including a chanterelle risotto, gnocchi with a walnut sauce, duck linguine, linguine puttanesca, a hearty lasagna, and a green salad. Please join us for what should be a memorable event.
