Join us for dinner on a Thursday night in exploring some diverse Italian wines. In light of the tremendous diversity of Italian wines, we'll focus on just the western half of the country, from Tuscany south. We'll start with a flight of great whites that pair exceptionally well with seafood. These will be served with a scampi style shrimp dish. The second flight will explore some Island reds from Sardinia and Sicily. The third flight will include chiantis from each of Chianti's three DOCG's: Colli Senesi, Rufina, and Classico. The fourth flight will focus on Aglianico from the slopes of Mount Vesuvius. We'll serve a pasta timballo and a sartu di risso with the last three flights.
