The Dönnhoff family first came to the Nahe region over 200 years ago, and after establishing a modest farm slowly evolved into a full-fledged wine estate. Helmut Dönnhoff has been making the wine since 1971, and now his son Cornelius works alongside in the winery and in their 25 hectares of Erste Lage, or grand cru vineyards. Their holdings represent some of the best in the Nahe and all of Germany.

Join us on Sunday, May 19 as we taste through a selection of 11 Dönnhoff Rieslings from the 2017 vintage ranging from $22 to $80 a bottle. The wines flights will be accompanied by a selection of fine foods.
