Have you ever wondered what wine to pair that favorite Asian food dish of yours with? The elements that make Asian foods so exciting, spiciness, mixing of opposite flavors and sweet ingredients, also make them especially hard to pair with wine. We are taking up the challenge and hope you join us for an exciting night of 6 courses of Asian foods paired with 7 different wines. The dinner is usually a very popular event and so it is highly recommended that you send in your reservations (the coupon below) soon. We would like all reservations by Thursday, October 6, 2011 so the cooks know the amounts of food needed.
