

Hi all:

We are pleased to announce a rare opportunity to taste white wines from the stellar 2002 vintage in Burgundy. Notice the unusual time and venue for one of our tastings.

The Event:

Event: 2002 White Burgundy Brunch
Cost: $35/person for Members or $40/person for Non-members and Guests - limit of 48 people
When: Saturday February 6th at noon
Where: 1912 Center, 412 E. Third Street, Moscow
Contacts: Steve Tomsovic, tomsovic@wsu.edu
Shaun Freuden, shaunf@roadrunner.com

We are featuring three wines each from the three main white wine producing regions of Burgundy, the Macon-Chalonnais, Chablis, and the Cote d'Or. We purchased these wines in 2004 and have been cellaring them until they were prime drinking age. Shaun Freuden will be preparing a full brunch of foods carefully selected to pair perfectly with the wines. Here is a sampling of the dishes:

Classic country roast chicken
Sauteed scallops
Grilled shrimp
Scrambled eggs with white truffle oil, leeks, and mushrooms
Scalloped potatoes with bacon and onion
Susan Ross's famous homemade berry crisp

There will be three wine flights and an aperitif. The wines to be served are:
