Sparkling wine is often associated with spring and summer and festivities. Although French Champagne is recognized as the best of the sparkling wines, the US is also producing some quality bubbles. Here is your chance to sample some US sparkling wine from coast to coast, including from NY and VA in the east and CA, WA, NM and OR in the west. All of our featured producers use the classic Méthode Champenoise (also used in France) to make their bubbles. Our flights will be grouped by style that spans geographic regions (see below), and for a change of pace will be accompanied by foods selected and prepared by the attendees. So, bring your palate and your culinary creativity (a grill will be available as needed).

Flight 1 - Brut

Scharffenberger (California)
J Vineyards Cuvee Forte (California)
Argyle 2009 (Oregon)

Flight 2 – Blanc de Blanc

Flight 3 – Blanc de Noir
