Please join us for an evening with Spokane winemaker Mike Scott, owner and wine maker for Lone Canary Winery. Mike has been making wines in WA for 20 years; he was the winemaker at Caterina from 1993 until 2002, when he opened Lone Canary. Mike has summarized his wine making approach as wanting "Lone Canary wines to combine the wonderful expressiveness of Washington State grapes with the depth and elegance of wines made in an Old World style." He will present 12 of his current releases, including Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Grigio, Barbera Rose, Pinot Noir, Barbera, Sangiovese, Dolcetto, two different Cabernet-Merlot based Reserve wines, a Syrah and a Syrah blend, and a late harvest Sauvignon Blanc. Board members, working hard for you, visited Spokane wineries in December and decided that Lone Canary wines are the best currently being produced in Spokane and that Mike is a most entertaining winemaker.
