Pat Carter and I started collecting Rhone's upon their release in 1998 and the tasting morphed into a comparison of two great vintages 1998 and 2000. Some of you may have attended the Southern version of this tasting. We think it is finally time to taste the northern version.

The Wines:

- 2 bottles Chapoutier Crozes Hermitage 1998
- 2 bottles Domaine Michel Perraud Sarah Le Vignon VV (Cornas) 1998 & 2000
- 2 bottles Domaine Remizieres Cuvée Emilie (Hermitage) 1998 & 2000
- 2 bottles Tardieu Laurent (Cote Rotie) 1998 & 2000
- 2 bottles Chapoutier Rouge Les Granits (St Joseph) 1998 & 2000

The Lunch:

We will start out with a delightfully gooey baked brie and then transition to a fresh green salad. The main course will consist of Shaun Freuden's famous leg of lamb barbequed to perfection on the Weber along with some fantastic accoutrements prepared by our in house culinary specialists. These will include a sausage paella, a mushroom dish, and a vegetable dish; these may change as we finalize the plans.

This is a rare two bottle tasting so invite your friends, invite your neighbors and even invite some strangers. For further information, contact Dave Riggelman (208-285-0117, daverz@genesee-id.com).
